MONDAY, JANUARY 29, 2009

3:00- Introductions (Steve Schenck)

3:08 Discuss purpose of the Network, brief description of the webinar and presenters' biographies

Federal & local perspectives of restructuring policies and practices (Zollie Stevenson, Jr.)

- Based on Title I monitoring site visits, reports from states and interviews with state-, district- and school-level personnel, what are the promising restructuring policies and practices?
- How will US ED continue to provide guidance to sustain the structures of support they have in place through NCLB as we move from one administration to another, as we look toward reauthorizing ESEA and in the current gloomy economic outlook for at least the next two years?

Research on implementation of restructuring efforts (Lauren Morando Rhim)

- From research, what are the promising restructuring policies and practices?
- Brief presentation of ongoing research and upcoming reports that address the following questions:
  - What is successful restructuring? How do you identify schools that have been restructured and subsequently met AYP target(s)?
  - What do we know about staff replacement in restructuring? What are the legal options and effects?
  - What can we learn from school districts that have closed schools? How was the decision to close schools made and what are the consequences for students, staff, and the community?
