

Biography

Kyron Jones

Kyron Jones is the School Improvement Grant Site Director in the office of Federal Programs at the Arkansas Department of Education. He is responsible for providing on-site technical assistance to schools receiving SIG funds. Kyron graduated from Arkansas State University in 1996 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Elementary Education. He received his Master of Education degree in Educational Administration in 2003 from Arkansas State. He has been with ADE since 2011. Prior to joining ADE, Kyron has served as an elementary teacher, an instructional facilitator, assistant principal, and principal.