

Biography

Lisa Long

Lisa Long is currently the principal of Pima Partnership High School (grades 9-12) and Pima Partnership Academy (grades 7-8). The role of principal is new for Lisa this year as she served as assistant principal of Pima Partnership Academy during the 2009-10 school year. Prior to joining the Pima Partnership Charter Schools, Lisa was the director of curriculum, instruction and technology integration for a large urban school district with over 100 schools. In this role she was responsible for the instructional implementations throughout the K-12 schools. Lisa brought the passion of the classroom to the central office after 13 years of classroom teaching. Throughout her 24 years of education service Lisa held the roles of classroom teacher, technology trainer, curriculum administrator and principal. In addition, she was named the 2006 Arizona Technology Coordinator of the Year through Arizona Technology Educators Alliance (AzTEA), an International Society of Technology Educators Affiliate (ISTE).
