

Biography

Suzanne Ochse

Suzanne Ochse has been the director of the Office of Student Achievement and Accountability (OSAA) at the New Jersey Department of Education (NJDOE) since 2003. Prior to working in OSAA, Ms. Ochse worked in the NJDOE grants office coordinating the development and implementation of the consolidated grant for school districts under No Child Left Behind and the former federal law, Improving America's Schools Act. Ms. Ochse has over thirty years of state government experience and extensive professional experience in planning, public policy implementation, and evaluation. Ms. Ochse is a board member of the National Association of State Title I Directors. Ms. Ochse is a New Jersey licensed clinical social worker with a Master's Degree in Guidance and Counseling/School Social Work. She also holds a Bachelor's Degree in Social Work.